

Psychodrama Training

The Professional Development Institute at Crossroads Programs
July 17-19, 2014
Crossroads Facility, Pekin, IL

Join Mary Bellofatto, MA, LMHC, NCC CEDS, TEP for this didactic and experiential training. She is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor with the State of Florida, a national Certified Counselor, a Certified Eating Disorder Specialist and a certified Trainer, Educator, and Practitioner of Psychodrama. Participants will be trained on the theory and practice of sociometry, psycho-drama and group psychotherapy, will have the opportunity to practice these techniques and to explore how they can be applied to their current clientele. The techniques learned can be used as an action method with groups, families, couples and in individual therapy.

This Crossroads training provides

- a safe and supportive environment in which to experience the various parts of a psychodrama enactment
- learn using psychodrama in group process.
- it can serve as a place to pursue personal and professional growth.

You will learn the tools to:

- Help clients connect to themselves and others
- Motivate clients and help them break through denial, and progress in treatment
- Build group cohesion
- Deal with conflict in group
- Deal with isolates and cliques in group settings
- Deal with transference and countertransference
- Help clients be aware of and connected to their bodies, in the therapeutic process

$699 (Credit cards and Bill Me Later payments accepted)
